Inspiring Children

Zoom Code of Conduct Policy

Below outlines detailed guidance you should read before joining The Academy of Gymnastics Zoom Lessons. We must remind you that all physical activity carries an inherent risk of injury and as parents/guardians you are responsible for your child's safety. As a result, a parent/guardian must be present for the whole Zoom class.

To reduce the risk of any injury, the parent/guardian must also:

- Stop their child from completing an exercise should they feel it is not safe in their environment, if their child is carrying an injury, or if they feel it is beyond their child's capabilities
- Ensure participants are dressed appropriately for physical activity
- Ensure all participants jewellery is removed prior to the session and long hair is tied up
- Ensure participant has enough space around them free from hazards Ensure potential moving hazards are minimised (i.e. pets and siblings) Ensure your child is on time to the class to avoid disruption
- Ensure camera remains on throughout. Camera's which are turned off will be removed from the call

Should there be a technical or connectivity issue, and the class is unable to run, no compensation will be due.

If following along live on Zoom, your child's video may be spotlighted for all participants to see, perhaps as a demonstrator or for feedback. Please await the recording if you do not wish for this to occur.

Finally, no sharing of the Zoom Recording or recording of any description allowed.

By logging on, or following The Academy's Zoom classes, you are agreeing to follow the guidelines and policy above.
